Easter Easy

Don't fall down the rabbit hole. This weekend has got something for every bunny.

Save a Bunny, Eat a Cupcake:

Try this Lemon Cupcake with Marshmallow Frosting recipe. Makes a dozen cupcakes.

Ingredients Cupcakes:

6 egg yolks
2 cups sugar
1½ tsp. fresh lemon juice
1 tsp. grated lemon peel
½ cup boiling water
2 cups sifted flour
6 egg whites

Ingredients Frosting:

6 tbsp. water
1¼ cups light corn syrup
¾ cup plus 1 tbsp. sugar
4 egg whites
Pinch of salt
Pinch of cream of tartar
2 tsp. vanilla extract

1. Beat egg yolks well. Add sugar and beat together until mixture turns pale yellow.
2. Add lemon juice, lemon peel, and slowly add the boiling water and flour.
3. Whisk egg whites until a stiff peak forms, then fold them into the batter.
4. Fill cupcake pans halfway and bake at 375° for about ten minutes or until a knife comes cleanly out of the center.
5. In a small saucepan, bring water, corn syrup, and ¾ cup sugar to 246°, until a firm ball is formed. (Use a candy thermometer.)
6. Beat egg whites, salt, and cream of tartar in a mixing bowl until foamy. Add 1 tsp. sugar and continue until the whites hold soft peaks. Slowly drizzle in the hot syrup mixture.
7. Mix on high until thick and fluffy. Turn to low and add vanilla extract. Add red food coloring for a pink hue.
8. Let cupcakes cool completely before frosting. Garnish with egg-shaped sugar cookies for bunny ears.

So you're a Basket Case. Even you can make these Chicks that are too cool to hatch. Instructions:

First spread out a paper cupcake liner and set it on a small plate or in a bowl. For the body, place a large scoop of vanilla ice cream or lemon sherbet on top of the liner. Create a neck by topping the body with a spoonful of ice cream and use the bowl of the spoon to flatten it slightly. Place a small scoop of ice cream on the neck for the head. Press on chocolate chips or raisins for eyes.

4. For a beak, flatten an orange gumdrop and cut it into two pieces.
5. Finally, make webbed feet with pieces of fruit leather or dried apricots.

An Eggsellent family activity for the skilled and not so skilled:

Ukrainian Egg Decorating is a new unique way to make those Easter Eggs even more spectacular. For just thirty bucks and you can get handsy with pysanky, the traditional art of decorating with wax and stains. Website

The Guac Is Always Greener - Cantina 18 opens in Cameron Village

Calling all taco and tequila aficionados: Your mission, should you choose to accept it, has just opened in Cameron Village, Raleigh. Cantina 18, a fantastic pueblo-style restaurant and bar, is available for a closer look at the upscale tacos, draft beers, and impressive collection of tequilas - any of which can be used in signature cocktails like the Skinny Girl Margarita. Judging by the crowds, you may need backup.

Cantina 18 is the newest restaurant by Chef Jason Smith of 18 Seaboard. No "mex in the city", Cantina successfully blends casual comfort with a fusion of Southwestern flavors. Featured are the tacos served with rice, black beans, and a delicious pickled cabbage - The Buzz had the mahi mahi, pulled pork, & breaded shrimp varieties & will try the tempting veggie & chicken on next visit. There is an array of appetizers and a nice selection of homemade soups, entrees (around $13) and salads. The queso dip was a hit and yes, the fresh guacamole will please the most finicky green go's.

The atmosphere is festive and inviting without being too "south of the border". The bar crowd seemed pleased with the cervezas (Mexican and craft - check out the Ommegang Rare Voss). There is also plenty of outside seating to enjoy the Tequila sunrise (& set). As expected, there were a few opening jitters, but the wait staff was very friendly and quick to make amends. All in all, Cantina 18 is worth the trip and a terrific compliment to the growing list of Cameron Village dining choices.

Cantina 18 - 433 Daniels Street, Raleigh - 919.835.9911 - open Monday - Thursday (11:30am - 10pm) & Friday & Saturday (11:30am - Midnight). No reservations. Website and online menus pending.

Have The Dickens of a Time - April 2nd at Tir na nOg

The Dickens was formed with one goal in mind: to create the ULTIMATE PARTY BAND for a new generation of music fans. These five veterans of the Southeastern music scene have joined forces to bring audiences the best party songs from the last two decades, along with the older classics everyone loves. From Bob Marley to Otis Redding to the Stones to Snoop & Sublime, it's a non-stop party full of surprises and high energy. Without a doubt The Dickens are THE answer to the common band.

Come see them at Tir Na nOg, 218 S. Blount Street, Raleigh on Friday, April 2nd. The Dickens hit the stage at 10:30.

TheBeltlineBuzz items are selected by our editors. No one can pay to be featured on TheBeltlineBuzz. That's what advertising is for, and it's always labeled as such. Selling ourselves (literally) would destroy the legitimacy, integrity, and fun of TheBeltlineBuzz. Plus, we'd never earn your trust that way. So we'll never make a dime off your meal at a restaurant nor a penny from the sale of the latest accessory we told you about.

That said, on occasion, we will send out "Dedicated" e-mails on behalf of sponsors. You'll recognize them from the subject line: "TheBeltlineBuzz Dedicated E-mail." Yes, these are paid for. And, no, we would never sell our subscriber list to anyone. Not for any amount of money.

We hope that you continue to enjoy your BeltlineBuzz. We look forward to delivering it.
